DUE TO CARELESSNESS.

Coroner's Verdict Regarding the Death of Edward Rollins.

An inquest was held at the morgue this morning over the body of Edward Rollins, colored, who was caught in the elevator at the Windsor flats, 1425 T street northwest, yesterday and instantly killed. The accident occurred about 4 o'clock in the afternoon, and, it is decided, was due to the carelessness of Rollins. The deceased was thirty years old and lived at 2225 Cleveland avenue northwest. He was employed as a furniture mover and was at work in the building yesterday when he lost his life. He had made several trips on the elevator and was told that it was necessary for him to ride in the freight compartment beneath where the passengers ride. When the freight compartment is to be used it is necessary for the passenger section to be stopped where the man in charge can open the door. Then he moves the cart up a short distance in order to bring the lower section flush with Forest Locker, colored, who had charge of the elevator yesterday, received a call from the fifth floor and took his car up. Seeing the furniture mover there, he stopped long enough to open the door and tell the prospective passenger to wait. Then he started ahead, but Rollins did not wait to enter the services. enter the service section of the car. Ac-cording to the evidence he made a leap for the passenger section and was crushed to death. His body fell to the bottom of the shaft. Locker was held under arrest until this morning, when he was taken to the inquest, where he was represented by Attorney Carrington. Several witnesses were heard, and the jury returned a verdict of accidental death, which exonerated the operator, and he was

LADY CURZON'S CONDITION Secured Sleep During Night and Took Nourishment.

WALMER CASTLE, Kent, October 1. The bulletin on Lady Curzon's condition issued at 10:30 o'clock this morning says: "Her ladyship had some sleep during the night and has taken nourishment well."

A bulletin issued last evening says that Lady Curzon passed a very comfortable day. Inquirers at Walmer Castle noticed marked hopefulness there, suggesting the belief that the crisis has passed. Dr. Cheyne returned to London today, but will return to the castle. The other doctors rereturn to the castle. The other doctors remain with the patient.
The steamer Vaderland is expected at Dover Sunday night. Among her passen-gers are Mrs. Leiter, Lady Curzon's mother, and her sister, who will be taken to the castle by a special train. It is believed that they must have already learned of the ient in the patient's condition by means of wireless messages from Poldhu.

SOUGHT FUNDS TO BURY CHILD. But Foster Hurst Had Worked the Game Before and Was Arrested.

Foster Hurst, colored, who told Judge Mills that his home is on 12th street, was arraigned in the Police Court this morning as an alleged vagrant. He was arrested yesterday afternoon in the neighborhood of 1st and P streets by Policeman Gusack because he was soliciting money through the pretense that his child had recently died and he needed funds to use in defraying the the hope that this could be done. funeral expenses. He had a paper which he submitted to those from whom he solicited contributions, which read:

"This is to certify that this man has lost his child at rreedmen's Hospital, and kindy as those who would be so kind as to give 5 or 10 cents to do so as he is out of work at present and it is impossible for him to find employment at present. Respectfully, "WILLIAM JOHNSON, 1633 12th st."

When questioned by the officer the col-ored man insisted that his child was dead and that he was without the necessary funds to give the body a decent burial. Hurst, the policeman learned, had been arrested on a similar charge a few months ago. The prisoner denied to the court that ne was guilty and claimed that the paper belonged to an old colored man to whom he

Judge Mills sentenced the prisoner to pay fine of $20, or serve three months on the erm. Attorney Bacon asked the court to The judge refused the request and said the man could go to Lynchburg after he had complied with the sentence of the court.

AWAITS RESULT OF INJURY. Lincoln Mitchell Held for Shooting Edward Wilson.

Lincoln Mitchell, colored, was before Judge Kimball today upon a charge of having committed an assault with a dangerous weapon. It is alleged that he shot and dangerously wounded Edward Wilson. also colored, of 1219 Mad son street. The shooting occurred in Mitchell's pool room, in the rear of Dorsey's saloon on 7th street, Thursday night.

Wilson and Randall Madison had been playing pool, it is stated, and the proprietor spoke to the former, asking him to settle for the game. Wilson, he alleges, struck him with a cue, and he retaliated by firing two shots at him. One bullet entered ilson's stomach and punctured the intestires in four places. The wounded man was taken to Freedmen's Hospital, where an operation was rerformed and the bullet removed. It was stated this morning that there had been a slight improvement in the condition of the wounded man, but that his condition is still Because of this statement the court did not fix bond in the case, and Mitchell was committed to await the result of Wilson's wound.

ALUMNI ASSOCIATION MEETS. Business High School Graduates Plan Publication of a Paper.

The executive committee of the Business High School Alumni Association held a meeting in the school office last evening for the first time this fall. Mr. Paul E. Several committees were appointed, the most important one being that on filling vacancies in the other com-

With the routine work over, President Sleman talked briefly of the annual banquet, which will be held in about five months. The president was followed by one of the members with a talk on the growth of the school, both as a school and as a factor in the interscholastic athletic and drill contests. One of the members of the committee very unexpectedly suggested the publication of an alumni monthly. Every member present was immediately inter-ested, and the matter was discussed at some length. It was declared that there was a great necessity for such a publication. Such a publication as the one proed, it was said, would keep the graduates in constant touch with the association and its members. Representative Hepburn Talks With the President.

INDIANA IS ALL RIGHT

HE HAS MADE MANY SPEECHES

IN THE STATE.

Proposed Trip to Panama Canal Strip-Distinguished Foreigners Received Today.

Representative Hepburn of Iowa talked on two subjects with the President today. That is, he admitted that number. One was politics, on which "Colonel" Hepburn is most interesting and fair at all times; the other was a contemplated trip to the Panama canal strip by the House committee on interstate and foreign commerce. Mr. Hepburn said that he had received acceptances from sixteen members of the committee of the invitation sent by him to make the trip to Panama. Representative Lovering was the only member of the committee who had not accepted. Mr. Hepburn communicated with Senator Hopkins of the Senate committee on interoceanic canals and asked him to find out how many members of the committee would like to make the trip, but so far there is no indication that the Senate will be represented on the journey.

Mr. Hepburn feels that a trip to the Panama region, in view of the probability of canal legislation this water, would be valuable to members of committees that will pass upon them, and that is why he wants to go. At the same time Mr. Hepburn thinks that the members of the ex-pedition should bear their own expenses, except as to a ship, and this is likely to have a discouraging effect.

"I have talked with the President about giving us a ship for the trip and he will have one placed at our disposal," said Mr. Hepburn. "As to the stocking of it, I feel that each man ought to put up for his own

"But that wouldn't be fair when you are going on business that will benefit the government, and, besides, whoever heard of a congressional junket that anybody but the government paid expenses?' was the suggestion made to the lowa veteran.
"Well, this is an age of novelt es and an era of reform," said the lowan, "and my individual views favor payment of individual expenses, as there would be criticism otherwise. But for heaven's sake don't circulate this view around until we have had opportunity to complete the party and the

Mr. Hepburn said his idea would be to leave this country between the 8th and the 15th of November and spend about four or five days going over the canal ter-This would be easy, in view of the fact that the railroad would be at the disposal of the committee and a thorough inspection of the ground could be made in a short time. There would be only twenty-six miles of country to go over where no excavations have taken

Commenting upon the recent assertion that a way had been found by Chief En-gineer Wallace and his assistants to change the flow of the Chagres river and thereby enable the construction of a sea level canal, Mr. Hepburn was somewhat doubtful. It might be possible, but his study of the situation did not make him readily take to

Politics as He Sees It.

Mr. Hepburn has been making speeches in Indiana. He knows something about the state, and he is sanguine as to the result. "There is not a doubt in my mind as to Indiana," said Mr. Hepburn. "I have just come from there, having made five speeches at different points. Of course, the meetings were attended largely by republicans. I d'd not see any apathy. There was no excitement, but the people I met thorough-ly understood things, and the feeling among them was exceedingly hopeful. I was careful in many inquiries that would tend to show the drift of things. I asked many republicans to tell me if they knew any republicans who would not support the who intends to vote the democratic ticket. who were going to vote for Roosevelt, and I was told of a number. I talked with a accept Hurst's personal bonds and said his I was told of a number. I talked with wife would take him to Lynchburg tonight. few who felt that way. I consider this straw showing the direction of the political wind. The democrats are not united, while the republicans are. I am going to make some speeches in Michigan and Wisconsin, and my time will be fairly well employed until election day."

"How about your district?" Mr. Hepburn "I'll tell you how it is in my district. In 1896 I made seventy-six speeches in my district and my majority was less than 200. Two years later I made half as many speeches and carried the district by a much larger majority. In 1902 I again cut the number of my speeches, and my majority was greatly increased. Two years ago I made only eleven speeches, and carried the district by 6,861. Consequently I have been admonished. My majority increases at an inverse ratio to the volume of my oratory." Pacific Coast All One Way.

Harvey W. Scott, the veteran editor of the Portland Oregonian, was in conference with the President today, and gave most hopeful encouragement. "Two-thirds of the total vote in Washington and Oregon will be cast for Roosevelt," said Mr. Scott, "and the majority in California will be 40 000. Idaho will give 10,000 majority for Roosevelt. The democrats there were void of issues, like they are everywhere, and they began to agitate the Mormon

They have attacked the Mormon church "They have attacked the Mormon church vigorously, with the result that they are losing many votes. They may gain a few, but they will certainly lose as many as they gain. In Utah it is about the same. A few republicans there who have been unable to control everything have joined the democrats, but the votes that will be gained will be offset by losses. As to Colorado, I do not know. The situation there is so badly mixed no one can tell what the outcome will be. In Montana the situation is come will be. In Montana the situation is somewhat cloudy, but the feeling is widespread that both these states will give their support to the national republican

Wonderful Electrical Development. President Roosevelt had an interesting talk today with Theo. Feilden, editor of the Electrical Magazine of London, England. Mr. Feilden came to America as one of the delegates to the international electrical conference, recently held at St. Louis. and, incidentally, has visited all the prin cipal industrial centers of the country.

"The President," he said, at the conclusion of his interview, "man fested the deepest interest in the developments of electri-cal science, and I found him wonderfully well informed on the subject. My trip to America has been a perfect revelation to me. We, in England, had heard and read a good deal about the development of electrical appliances in the United States, but before our visit we had no realization of the manders of the development. the wonders of that development. WASHINGTON LOAN AND TRUST COMPANY THE EXECUTOR.

Supreme Council, A. A. S. R., and Lutheran Home for the Aged Among the Beneficiaries.

The will of Dr. Leroy M. Taylor, dated September 25, 1903, naming the Washington Loan and Trust Company executor, and disposing of an estate said to be of the value of more than $1,000,000, was filed for probate today. Bequests as follows are

To his son, Leroy M. Taylor, jr., the testator's Masonie watch, chain and charm. other Masonic jewels, books and personal

To the Supreme Council of the Thirty-third Degree of the Ancient and Accepted Scottish Rite of Freemasonry for the Southern Jurisdiction of the United States of America, all books included in a certain list, to be known as "The Taylor Collection," with $500, to be used in the preparation of a catalogue of the books so donated.

To the National Lutheran Home of the Aged, all medicines with cases and appurtenances belonging to the testator.

To John Nuthall, a silver watch, $250 and the privilege of occupying premises 1904 M street for life, free of rent.

To Levi Dunmore, $150; to Wm. Dunmore, $250; to John Nuthall, Wm. and Levi Dunmore and Ernest Dipple, certain articles of To the trustees of Rock Creek cemetery, $300, for the perpetual care of the testator's

Dr. Taylor directed that John Nuthall, Wm. Dunmore and W. R. Randall, who were in his employ the date the will was executed, be retained as long as they faithfully perform their duties.

Property Held in Trust. The remainder of the testator's property, by the terms of the will, is left to the Washington Loan and Trust Company, to be held by it upon the following trusts: From the income to pay to Dr. Taylor's cousin, Miss Rose Orr of Breedsville, Mich.,

$15 a month for life, and to pay the remainder of the income to Leroy M. Taylor, jr., in monthly or quarterly installments, in the discretion of the trustee, for life. Upon the death of Leroy M. Taylor, jr., the trustee is directed to divide the principal of the residuum of the estate in two equal parts, and to dispose of the same as follows:

To convey to the Supreme Council of the Thirty-third Degree of the Ancient and Accepted Scottish Rite of Freemasonry for the Southern Jurisdiction of the United States of America, and to the National Lutheran Home for the Aged, in equal por-tions, one of the two equal parts absolutely. Income to Heirs.

To retain the other of the two equal parts and pay the income therefrom to the children of Leroy M. Taylor, jr., or to their equal portions until they shall respectively attain the age of thirty-five years, at which time, as they respectively attain the age of thirty-five years, to pay his or her share of the principal to him or her.
In the event of the death of all the children of Leroy M. Taylor, jr., before attaining the age of thirty-five years, without of the estate, it is provided, shall be paid to the Supreme Council of the 33d Degree of the Ancient and Accepted Scottish Pite of Freemasonry, and to the National Lu-theran Home for the Aged, absolutely. The provisions of Dr. Taylor's will, it is stated, are not fully in accord with those of the agreement between Dr. Taylor and his son regarding the disposition of the estate, made in February, 1901, and re-corded yesterday. It is understood that if it is in proper legal form and duly attested, the agreement, which antedates the will, will be binding on the trustee.

Ladies' Auxiliary Meets.

The Edith K. Roosevelt Auxiliary to the 4th Immure Command, United Spanish War Veterans, held its regular meeting Wednesday night, at which it entertained several guests, among them being a delegation from the Mary A. Babcock Auxiliary and the 4th Immune Command, which came in a body, headed by Captain Lockling, commander, to hear the report of the National Auxiliary convention, which was presented by Mrs. Isabel Worrell Ball, past president of the District department and president of the auxiliary, who had just returned from the convention held in St.

Mrs. Ball reported that her delegation consisting of Dr. Libbey Porter, national color-bearer; Miss Cornelia Clay, member of the National Council; Mrs. Martha Spencer delegate, and Mrs. Katharine Wood, Dis-trict president, was the largest, with one exception, in the national convention, and she declared that she believed it to be the strongest. Miss Clay was made chairman tion and by-laws, and the other members of the delegation were given equally good committee appointments.

Last Session Today - National Officers Elected.

PHILADELPHIA, October 1.-The only business of importance to come before the Brotherhood of St. Andrew delegates today will be the selection of the next meeting place. At a meeting of the newly appointed council the following national officers were elected: President, Robert H. Gardiner, Gardiner, Me.; vice president, Judge G. Harry Davis, Philadelphia; second vice president, Edmund G. Billings, Boston; treasurer, George H. Randall, Pittsburg; general secretary, Hubert Carleton, Pittsburg; office secretary, Edgar P. Criswell, Pittsburg.

J. A. Houghtaling of Chicago and Robert H. Gardiner of Gardiner, Me., discussed "the forward movement," and J. A. Catto of Toronto, Canada, and J. H. Smale of Chicago spoke on how the brotherhood movement be best promoted. At Philadelphia yesterday afternoon Dr. Davidson, the archbishop of Canterbury, was introduced at the meeting of the Brotherhood of St. Andrew by James L. Houghteling of Chicago, chairman of the convention. In the course of his address the archbishop of Canterbury said:

"Your kindness has emphasized to me the sense of absolute oneness of the English and American branches of the church, and the almost oneness of our kindred nations. I am glad that the misunderstanding of a hundred-odd years ago is driven, happily, blessedly, and, please God, permanently, away from our hearts and from our minds "But, speaking now as a churchman and not as men of nearly related countries, God's care of our church in past years and past centuries is a memory and a knowledge as dear to you as it is dear to us. "I do not think I realized what a great force there is in your country until this afternoon, when I faced the thousands of boys who comprise the junior department of your brotherhood. If all these youth be inculcated with the principles for which your brotherhood stands, what must it mean to America, and next to England and to all the civilized world twenty of thirty years hence.

"A half century ago the common answer to the question as to what was the first duty of a Christian would invariably have been the saving of his own soul. Now in the underrange of view, which virtually all men possess, it is generally recognized that no man should think too much of himself; that each is not only responsible for the saving of his own soul alone, but for helping the common life with which he daily has to do."

Dr. Davidson concluded by commending the brotherhood for its religious and humanitarian work. The archbishop was entertained at a dinner at the Bellevue-Stratford Hotel after the meeting, and left later in the evening for New York. Bleycle Policeman G. C. White of the sixth precinct was badly injured this morning, his bicycle coming in contact with a wagon be-

DRAFT NOT READY. Several District Interests Behind With Their Estimates.

The tentative draft of the District budget for the fiscal year 1906 has not as yet been completed and placed before the Commissioners for their consideration. It had been expected that the tentative budget would be compiled and ready for the consideration of the Commissioners by today. of District Commissioners, stated today that he has compiled all the individual estimates that have been submitted to the Commissioners by the heads of the various departments, but that the whole canthe District government have submitted their individual estimates. It is understood that the delay in placing the tentative budget before the Com-missioners is due to the fact that the estimates of the District militia, the public schools and the board of charities have not as yet been submitted to the Commission ers. It is expected that these branches of the District government will present their estimates shortly, and then the tentative draft of the budget will be placed Under the law the Commissioners' estimates must be submitted to the Secretary of the Treasury on or before the 15th of October of each year. Voluntary Bankruptcy.

A petition in voluntary bankruptcy was filed today by Elbert T. Johnston, a grocery clerk, of Bowie, Md., who says his princi-pal place of business was 731 7th street. His summary of debts is stated to be $20,077.92, with no assets.
